

Bicycle Ride

Here we are on a Saturday
We haven't stopped we're away
This time we are not walking
Instead we are going cycling
Along the trail nose to tail
Avoiding dogs never to fail
People walking people talking
Walking along without thinking
Other cyclists zooming at pace
Anyone would think it was a race
Dodging here and dodging there
Going alone without a care
Turning around to head back
A linear route along the same track
Reaching Dunmere
It's time to change gear
Getting back is a feat
The climb reaches 180 feet
Sit down on benches to have a rest
We all say how we did our best

By Mike Foster